What is CEF?

CEF is an association of United Methodists and persons from other denominations who have responsibility for Christian education or faith formation in any of its diverse forms, in and beyond the local church.

Mission

To develop leaders in faith formation to equip people of all ages to live as disciples of Jesus Christ.

The annual CEF retreat provides that rare but essential opportunity for self-care and revitalization for Christian Education and spiritual formation leaders.

East Ohio's CEF chapter details can be found at the Conference website at <http://www.eocumc.com/christian-ed/fellowship.html> or on Facebook at CEF - East Ohio Christians Engaged in Faith Formation, or contact Rev. Jim Lewis at eastohiocef@ymail.com for more information.

About Dr. Valerie Stultz:

Personal Mission Statement: I am called to guide persons to Christ through deep listening, informed teaching and passionate preaching

Rev. Stultz earned her B.S. in 1970, served as a Special Education teacher and tutor for more than ten years, as well as working in social services and addictions before earning her M.Div. in 1986 and her M.A.T.S., in 1989, both from MTSO. She served as Adjunct faculty and Field Ed group supervisor at MTSO as well, and earned her D.Min. in Pastoral Leadership from Wesley in 2004, and her Certificate in Spiritual Direction from John Carroll in 2012. She has served God through the United Methodist Church as local pastor, as DS, and in various missions and connectional ministry roles. She “retired” in 2014, but continues to serve in various consulting, trusteeship, volunteer, and through connectional committees. She has also served her local and the broader community outside the church as well in a variety of ways. She has been married 49 years, has two daughters, one son and six grandchildren.
