Greetings,

Let’s walk together for a while and ask where we begin to build a world where love can grow and hope can enter in, to be the hands of healing and to plant the seed of peace, come and know God’s grace. All are welcome to the love of God for us to share. “Welcome” ©2007 Abingdon Press (Alt)

This was the opening at the first meeting of Conference Officers of this new year. We began our retreat with a session about prayer and I would like to share it with you.

O God, source of all that makes life possible, giver of all that makes life good:

We gather to give you our thanks, yet we confess that we have often failed to live our thankfulness.

What we have we take for granted, and we grumble about what we lack.

We have squandered your bounty, with little thought of those who will come after us.

We are more troubled by the few who have more than by the many who have less.

Forgive us, O God. And teach us to make gratitude and sharing our way of life;

Through the grace of Jesus Christ. Amen.

In 1 Timothy 2:1-7 (CEB) Paul writes to Timothy - Prayer for everyone

2 First of all, then, I ask that requests, prayers, petitions, and thanksgiving be made for all people. Pray for kings and everyone who is in authority so that we can live a quiet and peaceful life in complete godliness and dignity. This is right and it pleases God our savior, who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. There is one God and one mediator between God and humanity, the human Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a payment to set all people free. This was a testimony that was given at the right time. I was appointed to be a preacher and apostle of this testimony—I’m telling the truth and I’m not lying! I’m a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Did you know that two-thirds of the world goes to bed hungry every night? One-third of the world is underfed, and one-third of the world is starving. As a matter of fact, thirty people starve to death in this world every single minute. Then we complain about dirty dishes. Nobody dislikes dirty dishes more than I do, but maybe we ought to be thankful for them.

Thank God for dirty dishes they have a tale to tell; While others may go hungry we’ve eaten very well.

With home, health, and happiness I should not want to fuss; By the stack of evidence before me God's been very good to us!

How do we express our gratitude to the God who gives us all blessings, through prayer. Giving thanks to God is one of the key components of any Christian prayer. Prayers can take many forms. One of the oldest and most common is called the collect. You’ve probably prayed a collect many times without knowing what it was.

A collect includes 5 parts they are, with example
a) a descriptive address, “Loving God”
b) a clause referring to some attribute or saving act of God which forms the basis for the petition, “giver of all good gifts”
c) the petition, “provide for us our daily bread”
d) the desired result or benefit from the granting of the petition, “that we may have the strength to serve you”
e) the doxological conclusion. “through Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen”
Loving God, provider of all good gifts, provide for us our daily bread, that we may have the strength to serve you. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Another longer form is called “How to have a conversation with God: 10 Steps to Powerful Prayer”

By the Hurlbut Prayer fellowship

Let’s look closely at each of the 10 steps.

1. PREPARATION

   We are told in the Bible to pray without ceasing, so sometimes we just have to dig in and pray.

   If you saw the movie War room that deals more with a specific time set aside for prayer. In that case we prepare physically, a quiet place, our prayer list, our Bible, etc. Then we need to prepare our heart. God is the instigator of prayer. The desire to pray is the result of his Spirit creating the longing to talk to God and to listen to what he tells us.

2. PRAISE

   God asks us to praise him – we were created to praise him. Praise opens our minds and hearts to flow in communion with God.

3. CONFESSION

   Authentic confession is to allow the Lord to press to the deeper levels of our lives, to point out what God wants us to confess. Confession is to say: Lord, show me anything that is standing between you and me, or between me and any other human being.

4. THANKSGIVING

   It is not just listing our blessings but acknowledging the greatest blessing of all: the unmerited grace of the cross.

5. INSPIRATION

   To know what to ask. God will speak to us through the Scriptures. We are given insights and wisdom we could not have achieved by ourselves.

6. INTERCESSION

   For the needs of others. The mystery of the Lord’s providential management of the lives of his people is that he often waits to bless the people of our lives until we pray. Jesus said: “Whatever you ask in my name I will do.”

7. SUPPLICATION

   For our needs. Prayer for own needs is done with the same assurance that we pray for the needs of others. We belong to him and if we are willing, he will make each step of our path clearly lighted by daily, moment by moment guidance.

8. GUIDANCE

   Choices must be made- decisions are always before us. God knows what is best for us. Psalm 32:8 says, “I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go.” When we want to know God’s will three things must line up:

   - The inward impulse
   - The Word of God
   - The trend of circumstances.

   Therefore it is

   - God in the heart compelling us forward
   - God in the book giving understanding as to what he says in the heart
   - God in the circumstances.

   Never start until all three agree. That’s a bit confusing, another way to look at it; when you are following God’s will, doors will open, you won’t have to fight, if it’s right it will be smooth sailing.

9. COMMITMENT

   It is relinquishing to the Lord the control of ourselves, others, and our needs, especially our fears and frustrations.

10. EMPOWERMENT

    This comes with the anointing of the Spirit. The Lord provides for what he guides. Our concluding petition in every prayer is for the anointing of his Spirit to be able to do his will by his power.

    As Jesus Prayed not my will but thy will be done.

As we begin this new year of following our “Mission” of being a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church, we should remember to always make prayer our first priority, and I ask all to participate in the 40 Days of Prayer for General Conference.

Joyfully Serving,

Becky Sutton, President
Happy New Year! The year 2019 is our sesquicentennial year and is going to be an exciting time for United Methodist Women. Last year our 2018-19 biennial theme, “Remember the Past, Embrace the Present, Transform the Future,” focused on the BOLD women of the present with Pastor Lu Ann Youngman’s powerful message at Annual Celebration. This year we will look at ways we can “transform the future” for women, children and youth. Infant mortality will be our focus at Annual Celebration 2019 with our scripture being Psalm 127:3a, “No doubt about it: children are a gift from the LORD.” Plan to attend the event, October 25-26, hosted by Canal District to learn the facts about infant mortality in NE Ohio and ways these precious gifts from God can be assured of a healthy infancy. If you have not planned all your programs for 2019, how about a birthday party for UMW? This is something that could be planned for a Saturday morning or Sunday afternoon and include the entire church, especially children and younger women. We’re the largest faith-based women’s organization in the world and we need to get the word out. God bless you; have a great year.

Greetings to my sisters in Christ,

I am your new MN&O person for the conference. MN&O means membership, nurture and outreach. Membership entails counting our members and reporting them to the national division in New York. Please remember local unit’s membership totals are due by March 31. If you have any questions on this please let me know.

Nurture is what we need to do for each other whether it is a local unit, district or just sisters in Christ. I plan to contact each one of the district MN&O coordinators. We can meet to share ideas and support one another. Serving together and hoping to help with nurturing each and every district counterpart will in turn help to nurture our local UMW communities.

Outreach is how we can reach out to support our own member plus potential members. I am planning on sharing with each one just how we can do that and fulfill our purpose.

Personally, I have been a UMW since 1980 and have served many local offices as well as district president, program resources and education and interpretation. I am a nurse and mother to two grown children a son and daughter. My daughter married in 2018 and will make me a grandmother this year. I am so excited.

Margaret Harvey
Rights of Membership

Through membership in United Methodist Women, a woman has the right to expect:
✓ Education, training, and experience in understanding the organization and fulfilling the PURPOSE;
✓ Resources that nurture growth, inform and stimulate, for example, “Response” magazine;
✓ Information that relates to world issues and leads to increased identification with women around the world;
✓ Recognition of her contribution as a member of the organization;
✓ Ways to communicate her concerns to United Methodist Women, Inc. (National Office); ✓ Opportunities for a variety of ways to serve and volunteer; and
✓ Membership in Church Women United and the World Federation of Methodist and Uniting Church Women (As members of these two organizations, women strive for an ecumenical and international community through unity of spirit and purpose, understanding the meaning of justice and freedom, and a commitment to the Gospel.)

Responsibilities of Membership

In the organization of United Methodist Women, members have the following responsibilities:
✓ To understand and be supportive of the organization and its PURPOSE;
✓ To participate in program activities;
✓ To keep informed about the programs and ongoing concerns of United Methodist Women;
✓ To subscribe to “Response” magazine, the official program journal of United Methodist Women;
✓ To attend training for local units;
✓ To participate in the mission studies;
✓ To use the Program Book for United Methodist Women;
✓ To engage in critical analysis and active listening while remaining open to different views and other perceptions;
✓ To use official sources of information; and
✓ To interpret the PURPOSE of United Methodist Women.

In addition, members are strongly urged to avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the conference Mission u, and district and conference annual meeting, spring meeting, and retreats.

Mary, Cathy, and Janie are all from the same small town and were actually in the same grade but started out at different schools. Mary grew up in the poorer part of town; while the other two were more in the middle class. The town got a new school superintendent who convinced the school board to create a junior high. This meant that the three girls would now be schooled in the same building. Mary planned on getting married and raising a family; Cathy planned on getting married but working outside of the home as a secretary; and Janie was going to college and moving to some big city.

The first week of junior high Janie noticed Mary as they passed while changing classes. She had on a well-worn dress but was neat and clean. Her small mouth had a tiny shy smile like she knew a secret that no one else did. Janie liked that so the next day Janie bumped Mary’s shoulder and smiled back. They never really had a conversation until they shared a study hall freshman year and then later when they both joined Y-Teens. Neither ever went to the other’s house but they always had something good to say to each other when they met.

Now on the other hand, Cathy and Janie knew each other from Sunday school, membership class, and Youth Fellowship. Cathy had been to Janie’s home many times for different events. Cathy now had a new longer an only child. The little curls, bright blue eyes, chubby wouldn’t quit. She wasn’t this because she both loved So Cathy carried her brother came to a mirror, she would

The three girls graduated their lives. Mary did get has grandchildren as well. graduate, and then went back made it to the big city, worked burned out. Cathy’s family The last thing she told Janie brother was afraid of mirrors.

A tiny seed is planted;
What will be is hard to know.
Will it grow tall and pretty?
Only God can make it so.

A tiny seed can wither,
A tiny seed can blossom,
A tiny seed shows wonder,
A tiny seed is awesome.

A seed is small and fragile;
It can take a lot of care.
Remember how to nurture,
With bright singing if you dare.

Their 50th reunion was this past July. Janie went for the first time. Did she look for both women? No, she did not. Neither Mary nor Cathy showed. Which one did Janie watch for and which did she not even remember until a couple of weeks later? Each of our little actions, thoughts, and words plant seeds, nurture them, or stunt their growth. The seeds we plant are only the size of a mustard seed, but what will they grow into?

Hello to all UMW Brothers and Sisters, Happy New Year!!!

It has been a very mild winter so far; I think we had more snow in November. But, we know that it is coming, so please be careful out there. And while you are doing so, why not reflect and act on our four main social issues are still: climate justice; maternal and child health; racial and gender justice; and economic inequality?

On January 4th, I received a lengthy e-mail from Carol Barton, UMW Executive for Community Action, in New York. This was regarding the postcards we filled out during this past year. 5,000 postcards were delivered to Wendy’s Headquarters on November 15, 2018. The group was not able to meet with management in person, so the postcards were delivered by mail to the CEO, Mr. Todd Penegor. There were rallies held outside of Wendy’s Headquarters in Dublin, Ohio. At this rally was our very own Kathy Kuhn and Kristina DuBois. There were also women from West Ohio Conference, New York Conference, Florida Conference, more from East Ohio Conference, Coalition of Immokalee Workers, National Farm Worker Ministry Board Worker, etc. The day itself was not pleasant weather wise. The ladies marched and chanted in the icy, pelting rain. I was told one the most unique sights was the fountain in front of the main entrance. The trees surrounding it were basically bare of leaves but were decorated with ice and snow. The fountain itself had water running down and over the tiers!

As the women were not ‘allowed’ on Wendy’s property, the ladies marched in a circle on the sidewalk close to the main entrance. The drivers on the four-lane in front paid little attention and pedestrians walked around without paying much attention. Part of that may have been paper-based signs wilt in the rain. But the women did take their stand and a document was read by the two Ohio Conference presidents. At this time, I am not aware of any response from Wendy’s. But we did try and will keep doing so.

Hoping to see you this summer at Mount Union for Mission u. Remember that there are scholarships available if you have never attended. Lifelong friendships can be made. Almost twenty years ago, (when I went to my first schools of Christian mission back then), I roomed with Barb Eckhardt. Every year, I look for a Christmas card from her.

Take care everyone. Blessings to all,
Sue McKay, Social Action
Greetings friends,

Happy new year!

As 2019 begins, we are taking steps to streamline resourcing for events and for distributing books on the Reading Program list. The changes and new processes are listed below.

Please share with your district and local officers that care for resources. Share with members as well, because we know many of them are continuously learning through the offerings in the Reading Program.

Beginning in January 2019, United Methodist Women Mission Resources (PBD) will no longer stock books on the Reading Program lists.

What this means:
- You will no longer be able to order books on the Reading Program lists from United Methodist Women Mission Resources.
- You will be able to purchase books from Cokesbury, Amazon and other major retailers, often at less cost than offered by Mission Resources.
- If you purchase from Amazon, the books are shipped free if you are a Prime member. If you purchase through the Amazon Smile program, a donation is made with each order to United Methodist Women. To learn more about Amazon Smile, visit smile.amazon.com. (Choose the United Methodist Women in New York, NY, to support the national office.)

UMW staff contact for the Reading Program : Andris Salter  asalter@unitedmethodistwomen.org

Beginning January 2019, United Methodist Women Mission Resources (PBD) will no longer offer consignment orders for events.
- You will no longer be able to order United Methodist Women resources on consignment for your event and return what was not sold.
- You will be able to order a free sample box that contains several United Methodist Women resources to display and keep at no charge to you. You may take orders from members onsite or let them know how to place their own orders.
- You will be able to purchase quantities of United Methodist Women mission resources for your event that you may sell. These will not be returnable.

What about Mission u? Members expect to be able to purchase the books at the school.
- Deans will let attendees know well in advance that books should be purchased before traveling to Mission u.
- Conferences can also purchase books to sell onsite. Books not sold during the event may not be returned but can be sold at future events.

Staff Contact for resource ordering for SPR's and others is Andrew Cheu: acheu@unitedmethodistwomen.org

All Around Us

Written by Xelena González  Published in 2017 by Cinco Puntos Press

Her grandpa says, “Circles are all around us.” He points to the rainbow that rises high in the sky after a thundercloud has come. “Can you see? That’s only half of the circle. That rest of it is down below, in the earth.” He and his granddaughter meditate on gardens and seeds, on circles seen and unseen, inside and outside of us, on where our bodies come from and where they return to. They share and create family traditions in this exploration of the cycles of life and nature.

Be Still: Departure from Collective Madness

Written by Gordon C. Stewart and Eric Ringham  Published in 2017 by Wipf & Stock

Be Still! echoes the call of a Navajo sage and a psalmist who invited their hearers to stop—and be still. These thought-provoking essays zoom in on singular moments of time where the world is making headlines, drawing attention to the sin of exceptionalism in its national, racial, religious, cultural and species manifestations.

Spoken into Being  Divine Encounters through Story

Written by Michael W. Williams  Published in 2017 by Upper Room Books

Everyone is a storyteller. Telling stories can help you make sense of your life and the world around you. When you tell stories, you speak a world into being, as God did in the Creation accounts in Genesis. Spoken into Being guides you in telling your own stories and reminds you that you have been spoken into being as part of a much larger story. Prompts at the end of each section serve as your guide to help you discover your own sacred stories and the people, places and objects that make them holy.

The Soulmaking Room

Written by Dee Dee Risher  Published in 2016 by Abingdon Press

In this personal story, Dee Dee Risher weaves experiences from her life with the biblical story of the prophet Elisha and the Shunammite woman. Risher is captivated by this spiritually attuned, generous, hospitable, honest and bold woman. The woman from Shunem extends radical hospitality to the prophet, expecting no reward. But when disaster strikes, she does not hesitate to hold Elisha accountable or talk back. Discover how life’s best and worst times can shape you into your most authentic self.

What We Need Is Here  Practicing the Heart of Christian Spirituality

Written by Roger Owens  Published in 2017 by Upper Room Books

What happens when you stop reading about God and open yourself to an ever-deepening relationship with God? Return to the heart of Christian spirituality with L. Roger Owens. It is simple, yet complex: Jesus is enough. Jesus offers everything you need to flourish in your life with God.
Mission u is an opportunity to study current issues impacting society based on current mission study topics with particular attention to the responsibilities of women in fulfilling the mission work of the church. We offer a one-day sampler for the adult & children studies on the Friday from 9:00 AM through 4:00 PM. The Adult Sampler includes short presentations of all three studies, a continental breakfast, lunch, and its own focus groups. The Children's Sampler also gives an abbreviated presentation which includes the study, crafts, and music.

The three-day experience starts Friday evening and goes until noon on Sunday. Friday's dinner, Saturday's breakfast, lunch, and dinner plus Sunday's breakfast are included with lodging. Commuter's registration includes Saturday's lunch but other meals are at the attendee's expense and can be purchased at the door of the cafeteria. Friday evening has a plenary and the first Bible/Spiritual Growth study. On Saturday, there are two sessions with one of the area studies. One study is on a particular geographical area; the other is on a social issues. Each of these studies are offered for two years with the studies changing on different years to enable participants to take one the first year and the other the next year. Saturday night brings a special dinner followed by a special program to go along with the year's theme. Sunday brings the second Spiritual Growth session along with a closing worship service and Communion service.

Pricing and deadlines for 2019 Mission u are on the registration forms which follow. Online registration: https://missionu2019.eventbrite.com (Click on Ticket button)

Spiritual Growth: Gospel of Mark (Radical Discipleship) This spiritual growth study presents this well-known Gospel of Mark through voices and experiences that are often relegated to the margins. In five chapters, the study examines different passages in Mark and challenges readers to discover what radical discipleship looks like in their context.

Social Issue: What About Our Money? Most of us would rather talk about politics or death or pretty much anything else before we talk about money. What About Our Money? A Faith Response explores how we understand money within the context of our faith. This discussion and our own awareness of how we relate to money can actually help free us from many of the financial dilemmas we face.

The focus of this study is both personal and communal. We will explore our own relationship with money, the money choices available to us, and how we individually and collectively respond to economic inequalities in light of our faith.

The Sampler is an overview of all 3 studies. In the three day event, attendees will take the Spiritual Growth Study: Gospel of Mark (Radical Discipleship) plus the choice of the other two areas of study. Please indicate your first choice of the other two studies. Each study is on for a two-year term. Therefore the first-year study will be offered again next year, but the second year is in its last year at Mission u.
